EXPERTS OFFER WAYS TO GET RAPID TRANSIT

Want All Traction in One System.

BY ARTHUR EVANS.

An initial subway system and expansion of the "L" roads and surface lines, using buses in feeders, where necessary, is a unified operation, are outlined in a set of recommendations issued last night by the Western Society of Engineers.

The report deals with questions of rapid transit, the elevated and surface lines situation, enlargement of the central business district, motor vehicle traffic and improvements in the use of the streets.

For United System.

In its foreword, it declares "the particular development which seems likely to give greatest relief is the coordination of the surface and elevated railways."

As to municipal ownership, it says "unless financial and legal conditions can be changed to attract capital again into the transportation field, the credit of the city must be used to acquire the systems and for extensions."

Chief Features of Plan.

As finally approved by the board of directors and sent out by Edgar S. Wheeler, secretary, the principal recommendations are:

"Construct a limited system of subways and expand the existing elevated and surface railways including bus line feeders, where desirable, to form unified system.

"Consolidate and coordinate all surface and elevated lines.

"Establish within the limits of the city, a single primary fare, based on cost of service, with free or paid transfer between rapid transit and surface lines.

"Limit the rate of expansion to demands of traffic.

"Route through traffic to avoid congested centers."

Toll Financial Difficulties.

The report then makes reference to financial difficulties and the use of the city credit as previously quoted, adding:

"If the unified system is financed by the city, operation should be by a private corporation under lease, supervised by a board of commissioners. These commissioners should have long terms of office and should be composed of persons selected from the financial, engineering and commercial fields."

Report Opposes Long Haul Subways.

"The wide extent of territory to be served by the low density of population and the limitations imposed by the cost of the so-called comprehensive system of subways impracticable."

Favors Elevated Lines.

"A modern elevated type should be the standard construction for the city, subject to its lower cost. Open cut construction may be substituted for elevated structures where applicable."

"The proper function of subways in Chicago will be to accommodate elevated and surface cars in areas where there is no or above the surface is inadequate to accommodate the needed transportation."

Would Reduce Congestion.

"The downtown district the report suggests the Chicago river from Main street to 15th street.

"Through through north and south streets between State street and the Chicago river."

Encourage the Steam Railroad Facilities.

"Encourage the steam railroad facilities of the loop district to permit the opening of such streets."

"Provide additional transportation facilities throughout an enlarged area surrounding the present loop."

Reduce the allowable height of buildings to decrease the maximum density of occupation."

Street Traffic Problems.

"The problem of bus lines is treated by regarding them as 'valuable extensions of surface or rapid transit lines in districts where the rate of travel is not an essential consideration and where fixed tracks are objectionable.'"

"For the handling of general street traffic, including buses, private autos, taxicabs, etc., on page 4, column 4."

ACCEPT TERMS TO END BRITISH DOCKERS STRIKE

Men May Return to Jobs Tomorrow.

BY PAUL WILLIAMS.

[Copyright, 1924, by The Chicago Tribune.]

LONDON, Feb. 21.—(3 a. m.)—Representatives of striking dock workers and the employers agreed on the terms of a settlement which may end the disastrous strike lying up British shipping, at a meeting with Tom Shaw, minister of labor, early this morning.

The terms will be presented to the dock workers' delegates for a vote of acceptance today. The delegates will meet at the ministry of labor tonight to give their decision.

It is believed the strikers will be back at work on Friday.

Strikers Win Wage Demand.

The settlement was based on an offer by the employers last night following a day of conferences in which cabinet officers constantly pressed for a quick settlement.

This proposal, it is understood, grants the two shillings (45 cents) daily increase in wages which the men demand and provides that discussion of the men's demand for a guaranteed week's work be left in the national interest, to a national commission, if necessary.

London's Food Receipts Cut.

London's wholesale markets yesterday received only 25 per cent of their normal supplies of meats and the poultry and dairy products.

Domestic beef was sold at 10 p. cent. Domestic best beef at 12 p. cent. and wheat went up 3 cents a bushel.

In Ireland, Denmark, Holland, Belgium, France and Norway, which supply Great Britain with an enormous amount of foodstuffs, the products which had accumulated for shipment today admitting that the strike was a material loss.

A price slump followed in the domestic markets of these countries. Meat on the hoof dropped from 4 to 3 cents a pound in Ireland, where eggs also are selling at 6 cents a dozen less than on Tuesday.

Ready for Drastic Action.

The Socialist government indicated that it has prepared to invoke the act of 1910 and declare the existence of an emergency under the cloak of which it could do whatever is necessary to maintain the supply of foodstuffs.

The government is reluctant to take advantage of this law, but unless the workers accept the proposed settlement by tonight the cabinet will delay no longer, although stringent action may Labor members. Prime Minister MacDonald realizes that failure to act will not only mean suffering for the people, if the strike should go on, but also probably the fall of the cabinet.

Twelve United States shipping board freighters are among the hundreds of oil vessels in British ports. All contain full cargoes for Great Britain except one, which is partially discharged.

Mail from U. S. Is Held Up.

Eight thousands sacks of mail from America are still lying in lighters at Plymouth. These are moved to docks within a few feet of railway mail cars, but the railway men refuse to haul trains loaded by nonunion labor.

It was stated indignantly in the house of commons yesterday that this was the first time that the British government has not been able to move mail and parcels from the docks.

Mr. MacDonald promised to take action today for the distribution of these hundreds of thousands of letters if the dispute is not settled.

The Olympic sailed from Southampton yesterday morning with 6,000 sacks of mail loaded during the night by bookkeepers, officials, and other employees of the company, who volunteered to serve in the emergency. They also carried aboard the baggage of the passengers, among whom are Sir Esmé Howard, the new British ambassador to the United States; Post Wheeler, counselor of the American embassy in London, and his wife and son, and Mr. Masaryk, son of the president of Czechoslovakia. The Olympic carried no cargo.

The liner Marlow has canceled its sailing from Glasgow, set for Friday, and its passengers have been transferred to the Metagama, due to leave Liverpool on Saturday.

Kills Parents Year After He Slew Sisters

St. Petersburg, Fla., Feb. 20.—Charged with slaying the four members of his family, two by two, on dates exactly one year apart, Frank McDowell, 19 years old, tonight was held in jail to await trial for murder.

The youth signed a confession late today admitting that he shot and killed Mr. and Mrs. J. M. McDowell, his parents, last night, and that he caused the fire in which Marion, 15, and William, 15, his two sisters, perished at Deatur, Ga., Feb. 19, 1923.

Mind Becomes Hazy.

In his confession the youth said his mind became "hazy" at times and during these spells he was obsessed with the hallucination that the members of his family were followers of the anti-Christ.

Tracing the origin of these spells, Frank said that when he was 12 years old he had been told that the "Holy Ghost" was in the house and that since that time he has been trying to expiate his sin.

This "blasphemy" occurred on Feb. 18, he said. Every year since, on his anniversary, Frank said, his mind became erratic and he believed his family to be allied with the anti-Christ. These delusions continued annually until one year ago he felt that he must kill his sisters in order to atone.

Set Fire to Bed.

Explaining the Deatur, Ga., fire, Frank said that he cried into the room occupied by his sisters, saturated the bed clothing with gasoline, fired the inflammable mass and fled.

After he had started the fire in which his sisters perished, Frank said, he was appalled at his crime. When the death of his parents was felt that the death of his parents was a sacrifice demanded as penance for the killing of his sisters, he said.

Frank said he went to sleep last night without any definite thought of violence to Mr. and Mrs. McDowell. He dreamed, he said, that he was commanded to kill his father and mother. When he awoke he arose from his bed, went into the next room and fired five shots at them.

Horried by his crime, Frank said he attempted to make it appear as a murder by some one else.

Kills Three and Self.

Philo, Ill., Feb. 20.—The bodies of Joseph Whittle, 48, his wife, and their 19 year old daughter, Luella, were found in the Whittle home four miles southeast of here, early today. The body of Louis Kuntz, 45, and a bullet wound in the head, brother of Mrs. Whittle, was found a short distance away. Near his body was found the rifle with which all are believed to have been slain by Kuntz.

Trouble between Russell Kuntz, son of Louis, and his cousin, Luella Whittle, was thought to have been the cause of the shooting.

ARREST BANKER WHOSE DOG IS CALLED VICIOUS

John E. Blunt Jr., vice president of the Illinois Merchants Trust company, was arrested last night on a charge of harboring a vicious dog, Gaffney Winslow, of 1209 Michigan avenue, Evanston, a neighbor of the Blunts, charged that the dog frightened his children. When he made the complaint several days ago, Mrs. Blunt was summoned. The case was postponed after she agreed to keep the dog out of town. Then her husband returned from the east and brought the dog back to his residence at 1133 Michigan avenue. The case will be heard Feb. 23.

WED SIXTY YEARS TODAY, THEY'LL BE BURIED TOGETHER

After sixty years of married life together, Mr. and Mrs. Edward D. Newton will be buried today following a double funeral service at their home in Chicago, Ill. Mrs. Newton, who was 77 years old, died Tuesday in her son's home at 6111 Norwood Park avenue, three days after the death of her husband. She had been in good health until stricken by the shock of his passing. The Newtons lived at Haledale and Monroe streets before the fire of 1871 drove them to Chicago.

SMALL PAY ROLL ARMY TAXED FOR $1,000,000 FUND

$50 Now, $50 in March,
Assessment Figure.

BY PARKER BROWN.
The Gov. Len Small started out to raise a $1,000,000 fund to use in his fight for re-election.

The question was asked yesterday at the regular Republican county headquarters when word came from a reliable source that state employees in Chicago had been notified to "come across" with $50 from this month's pay and the same amount from the March check.

"On that basis," said one of the men who received the information, "the governor is out to collect a $1,500,000 fund. Apparently the assessment is heavier than under the old 5 per cent scheme which used to net something like $150,000, according to the general understanding."

Low Salaries Emphatic Hit.
The Chicagoans said to have received their notices are among the "low salaries" state employees, and while some matters ordinarily do not become public, it is probable that the notices against the lower salaried employees are higher in proportion. It is felt that while an estimate of $1,000,000 may be high, it is possible that the small re-election under "Landon's" rules may have set that amount as its goal.

Before the days of civil service the shush fund was a regular feature of every campaign, but such an enforced collection now is a violation of the merit law. If later disclosures show that the assessments are being backed up by pressure of an official investigation probably will result.

Up to this time the only pressure brought to bear on state employees has been the demand that they bring in their quota of small pledge cards. This demand has been hampered by the fact that in all departments subject to Small's control, and the result has been a flood of pledge cards which, politicians say, are not worth the paper they are written on.

Many Veterans for Coolidge.
Completely disregarding the bonus issue, former service men have built up their own Coolidge for President organization in Illinois to such an extent that it now boasts twenty-four branches in Chicago and approximately 100 branches in statewide territory. It has its own headquarters in the Consumers' building, and is being directed by Frank L. E. Will.

"We believe," said Will yesterday, "that President Coolidge's general training, experience and temperament equip him for the office and we believe a Republican form of government, with a constructive, practical program for carrying on the business of the country, and an executive of proven ability paramount at this time."

Bonus Not an Issue.
"Many of our members are for the bonus and many of them against it. As an organization we take no stand on that issue. We simply believe as we did when in uniform, that that which is of the most value to the greatest number of people should have our endorsement and our support."

Col. George Beaman of Taylorville is state chairman of the organization. George A. Padcock of Evanston, one of the organizers of the Minute Men of the Constitution, is treasurer.

Nearly 1,200 resolutions have been made for a luncheon which the Cook county branch of the Illinois Women's Democratic club will give at the Hotel Sherman next Saturday in honor of Democratic state and county candidates endorsed by the regular organization.

Norman L. Jones, candidate for governor, Col. A. A. Sprague, candidate for United States senator, and Mayor William E. Dever will be the principal speakers.

Lillian Drew's Death Due to Mistake in Taking Medicine
A coroner's jury yesterday decided that Mrs. Lillian Helm Culbert, known as Lillian Drew in the days when she acted before the camera for the old Emmanay Film company, came to her death by accident. She died Feb. 19 from venereal poisoning taken to induce sleep following an accident.

DRAINAGE CANAL MADE ISSUE IN CONGRESS RACE

Daniel Webster Talks of City Needs.

BY FRANK BUTZOW.

Illinois congressmen, with a few notable exceptions, are meeting little serious opposition in the coming primaries, but the few exceptions have their hands full and face hard primary battles.

Some of these contests will be bitter and spectacular, reports indicate. Another week still remains for candidates to file petitions, but the lineups appear to be firm in most districts now.

In the ten Cook county districts there are two notable contests in the Republican primary. Former State Senator Frank P. Sadler, a Densen follower, is running against Congressman Eliot W. Sprout, who is backed by the regular organization.

In the Seventh district the regulars have endorsed State Senator Daniel Webster, who has opened a vigorous fight against Congressman M. A. Michaelson.

Attacks Policy on Canal.
In a statement yesterday, Webster attacked Michaelson's record on legislation affecting the Illinois waterway and the diversion of water from Lake Michigan for sanitary purposes.

"It seems to me that the action of Congressman Michaelson should be condemned by every person within the Sanitary district," Webster said. "Apparently the congressman sees fit to obey Gov. Small and his crowd rather than those things which are for the welfare of the people of the district."

"The only reason I can see for his attitude is an attempt to injure the candidacy of Senator Medill McCord."

Democrats Are Regular.
The Democrats are taking things easy in the Cook county districts. The regulars have endorsed the four Democratic congressmen, Doyle, Sabath, Buckley and Kuntz, and entered candidates in the other districts, except the Ninth, the district represented by Congressman Britten.

Many Veterans for Coolidge.

Completely disregarding the bonus issue, former service men have built up their own Coolidge for President organization in Illinois to such an extent that it now boasts twenty-four branches in Chicago and approximately 100 branches in statewide territory.

GALLIGAN AGREES TO COMPROMISE WITH KLANSMEN

Young and Two Deputies to Go; Raids Over.

Harris, Ill., Feb. 20.—(By the Associated Press.)—A compromise between Sheriff George Galligan and the Ku Klux Klan, which provides for a cessation of dry raids by the Klan, the removal of A. Glenn Young, paid employe of the Klan, and two of Galligan's deputies, was announced today by a citizens' committee which brought about the compromise.

John Layman and Hiram Byrnes, deputy sheriffs, to whom the Klan has objected, will be replaced by two men to be named by the committee, which is headed by A. B. McLaren, retired coal operator.

The compromise probably will result in recall of the state militiamen who have been on duty in Williamson county since Feb. 1, following a riot instigated by wholesale dry raids.

Committee Makes Peace.
The committee, after conferring with Sheriff Galligan and Sam Harris and Carl Nelson, stated cyclists, respectively, of the Marion and Harris klans, issued a statement asserting that hereafter law enforcement "must be by the constituted authorities of the county."

The committee will conduct a campaign to increase its membership to 1,000. It was said, and all members will cooperate with county officials in law enforcement work. The committee at present is composed of professional and business men.

Soft Drink Parlor Enjoyed.
East St. Louis, Ill., Feb. 20.—(Temporary injunctions, returnable in federal court at Danville, March 10, were issued in federal court here today to close forty-seven soft drink parlors in Williamson county under the nuisance clause of the Volstead law.

The injunctions were issued after 130 dry law informations, prepared by United States District Attorney Allen at Danville, were sent here. The forty-seven informations on which the injunctions were based charge sale of intoxicating liquors.

trucks, etc., but exclusive of street cars, the report advocates:

"Open up and widen important thorough streets."
"Remove the produce market from South Water street to a less congested location."

"Separate street and railroad grades where traffic requires."

"Complete paving through the outskirts of the city of the arterial streets necessary to connect with state and county highways."

For Faster Car Loading.
"For the problems confronting the surface car lines the report offers the following ideas:

"Establish loading zones for street cars in congested districts where feasible."

"Prohibit parking in streets and alleys of the downtown district between the hours of 1 a. m. and 6:30 p. m."

"Limit the height of the crown of street paving to facilitate the full use of streetcars."

"Widen pavement at loading points of buses when possible, so as to permit free passage of other vehicles."

"Develop and extend a coordinated through street system and install adequate signs throughout."

"Install additional automatic and uniform signal lights at congested intersections."

Urges Further Inquiry.
Among the subjects which the report recommends for further investigation are:

"Use of steam railway right of way and tracks in connection with the rapid transit system."

"Provision for additional parking space in the vicinity of the loop district."

"Reduction of terminal loops and switchbacks of surface line cars in the downtown district."

"The policy of fixed instead of open bridges over the Chicago river, with provision for large transfer and terminal."

"Use of sidewalk subways, elevated sidewalks, or arcades in the loop district."

"Use of special emergency policy to meet cost of construction of transportation facilities in areas of that which would be supported by a reasonable rate of fare."

Oppose Haphazard Methods.
The report says, in regard to transportation methods in the loop district, "providing facilities which perpetuate critical situations should be discouraged. To make transportation improvements effective, the density of occupation in the downtown district must be controlled in proportion to the transit capacity."

"SPEAK ON 'FISH LIFE' TODAY."
A public lecture on the "Conservation of Fish Life" will be given today at 8 p. m. in the main hall at the Field Museum by George A. Myers, who has for two years been in charge of the fish collection. The lecture is held under the auspices of the Field Museum Society.

COOLIDGE'S CERTAIN IF I TAX RATES

Compromises P

BY CRAFTON WILSON.
Washington, D. C., Feb. 20.—(By the Associated Press.)—Administration members of congress today announced that President Coolidge's tax reduction bill would be introduced in the house by the administration.

The administration, it was said, will start every effort to bring about a revision of the tax law before the bill reaches the high house when the bill reaches the senate.

COLLIDGE'S VETO CERTAIN IF HOUSE TAX RATES STAND

Compromises Predicted by Party Leaders.

BY GRAPTON WILCOX.

Washington, D. C., Feb. 20.—(Special.)—Administration senators and members of congress today appeared to be convinced that President Coolidge will veto the tax reduction bill if it cannot get through congress as now framed in the house by the coalition of Democrats and Republicans. The administration, it was made known, will exert every proper influence to bring about a reversal of the action and to reduce the surpluses from the high Democratic level when the bill reaches the senate. That there is prospect of the senate modifying the surtax rates Republican leaders appeared to be confident.

Longworth Seeks Compromise. Representative Longworth (Rep., Ill.), the majority house leader, said today that he had not abandoned hope of arranging some compromise on the tax bill before the bill finally passes the house. The President during the day discussed the situation with several Republicans, among them Representative Buchanan (Rep., N. J.), a member of the ways and means committee.

The Democrats continued to demonstrate their present control of the situation, however, by adding further amendments to the bill today, but they failed to offer any amendment for the 21.5 per cent reduction in the tax on earned income as provided in the original Garner plan. A provision relating to stock dividends was the chief Democratic amendment approved.

Representative Chindolph (Rep., Ill.), a member of the ways and means committee, tonight issued a statement severely criticizing the Democrats for making a partisan issue of the tax bill.

Attacks Democratic Action. The action in the committee of the whole of the house yesterday showed the Democratic party as a political organization has ceased functioning in the manner of passing constructive legislation, Mr. Chindolph said. "On the purely economic questions as to the limit of maximum surtax, that party voted as a unit, having previously bound its members by caucus rule."

"It is true that seventeen Republicans supported the Democratic proposal but not a single Democrat was free or willing to vote for a smaller surtax than the 44 per cent. This creates a serious condition for the country."

"The large number of Democratic editors and newspapers who have supported the so-called Mellon plan will have to determine whether the Democratic leadership in the house of representatives merits their continued support."

Act on Earned Income. The house in committee of the whole today acted on the earned income provisions, accepting them substantially as provided in the committee bill. The reduction on earned income is 25 per cent as recommended by Secretary of the Treasury Mellon. No change was made in the ways and means committee provisions under which the first $5,000 of net income is considered earned income and the earned income credit may be applied not to exceed $20,000 of net income.

The Democrats abandoned their plan for a 33.15 per cent reduction on earned income because of a desire not to reduce revenues further. The Republicans have claimed that the entire Garner plan would mean an annual deficit of $100,000,000 after the law is in full operation.

The most important change made in the bill today related to stock dividends. The Democrats with the aid of the Republican insurgents put through an amendment by Representative Garner excluding from the definition of capital assets stock dividends held for more than two years.

Subject to Income Tax. The effect of the amendment as approved is to make profits from stock dividends when converted into cash subject to the ordinary normal and surtax rates. Under the bill as it stood, stock dividends when held for two years became capital assets and then when sold at a profit to the tax of 25 per cent which applies on net gains from the sale of capital assets.

The stock dividend amendment affects only individuals with income large enough to be affected by tax rates in excess of 15 per cent.

She's Grandmother at 29; Daughter Married at 12. Quincy, Ill., Feb. 20.—(Special.)—Mrs. Martin of Pittsfield, Ill., 29 years old, claims the distinction of being the youngest grandmother in the Mississippi valley. Her daughter, Mrs. William Van Buren, aged 12, of Hull, is the mother of a baby girl. Mrs. Martin was married when she was 15 years old and her daughter was married at the age of 12.

ROBBED OF $3,800

THEODORE PERKINS.

Two youthful bandits took $3,800 in checks and money orders yesterday from Miss Theodore M. Perkins of 1013 North Kedzie avenue, 17 year old messenger for the mail order house of Bernard, Hewitt & Co. The robbery occurred on the first floor of the company's building at 840 West Van Buren street. Miss Perkins was starting for the bank when one of the holdup men grabbed her by the throat and choked her screams. Then his companion, who was armed, seized the dispatch envelope and jammed the girl down. She jumped to her feet and ran after the bandits. Her cries for help attracted several men, who joined in the chase. The robbers escaped in an automobile parked near the building.

WELL, NOW WHAT DOES THE POOR CONSTABLE DO?

He Served Attachment, but What Next?

The legal controversy between Axel Sorenson and Mrs. John Schrummer of Niles Center encountered complications yesterday. Constable George Harrison is in a quandary.

Sorenson, a well digger, sued out a writ of attachment to satisfy his bill of $25 for services rendered.

"I dug a good well on Mrs. Schrummer's farm," he said, "and she won't pay me."

"Of course I won't," she replied. "Whenever it rained, a little water would get into the well. Then it would run right out again, quick."

Regins as the Chickens. Constable Harrison went out in pursuit of the writ, to "seize, sequestrate and hold" $25 worth of property pending a court hearing. He began on Mrs. Schrummer's chickens.

"Plein equity thwarted his efforts, however. While chasing one of the hens, two which had already been captured got away. Another bit him, he claims. After half an hour of pursuit he had apprehended only seven chickens.

Then Constable Harrison spied Violet rummaging a choice morsel of corn. Being a good Violet was more readily seizable. The constable released the captive hen and returned to Evanston with Violet beside him in the sifter.

She nibbled the speedometer and ate one monkey wrench, but Harrison didn't mind. He felt complacent in the satisfaction of a writ well served.

Law Takes Its Course. All seemed well until yesterday. Violet was contributing milk to the Harrison household, and the law was going its course in an orderly fashion. Then, last night, the undue complications stepped in. The constable glumly reported their advent at the Evanston police station.

"Violet up and died on me," he said.

BACK M. L. IGOE FOR SOUTH PARK BOARD MEMBER

Friends Expect Judges Will Elect Him Today.

BY PARKE BROWN.

State Representative Michael L. Igoe probably will be elected a member of the south park board today. Chief Justice Phillip L. Sullivan has called a meeting of the judges of the circuit court to select a successor to Commissioner John Barton Payne, who some time ago indicated that his duties with the American Red Cross would not permit him to continue with the park duties.

"And it will be MICHAEL L. IGOE. Igoe of nobody as things now stand, said a man believed to know what he was talking about. "It probably will be Igoe on the first ballot. If it isn't there may be a deadlock such as there was two years ago, with no election for some time to come."

Looks Like an Agreement. Translated for the needs of the layman, this is taken to indicate that the regular Democratic organization has obtained enough Igoe pledges from Republican judges to create the situation described. The circuit court includes eleven Republican and nine Democratic judges. On the face of these figures a Republican would be elected today if the judges followed strictly partisan lines. But other things are taken into consideration in such matters.

Albert L. Mohr is the leading Republican candidate. He was a candidate a year ago and it was charged that the Thompson forces were his original sponsors, although he was endorsed by the regular committee. This year Mohr hasn't the backing of the regulars. It has been removed that he is counting on the support of the Demos judges.

Major Victory Seems Unlikely. Because of the opposition of the regulars to Demos control of the south park there is little possibility that any judge aligned politically with the Brundage-Barratt-Galpin-Harding group will vote for Mohr.

Instead there is a belief that they will vote for the Democratic organization choice, Igoe, to keep a Demos man from getting the Payne place. Two votes of this sort added to the votes of the nine Democrats, all of whom are "regular" on this occasion, will elect Igoe.

Three Held in $1,000,000 Mail Robbery Released

Dr. Haldaen Olsonson, John Graham and William J. Serpas, indicted by the Los Angeles grand jury for complicity in Herbert Wilson's $1,000,000 mail robbery in 1921, were released yesterday by United States Commissioner James E. Glavin when federal agents failed to produce evidence to justify their removal to California.

To Pick Carter's Successor. That the regular Cook county organization will select the nominee for the Illinois Supreme court from the Seventh district to succeed Justice Orrin N. Carter, who is retiring at the end of his term, became apparent when the first move was made in this direction yesterday.

Chairman Homer K. Galpin, with Chairman W. Lee Chapp of Du Page county and George A. Barr of Will county as co-signers, issued a call for a meeting of the chairman of the five counties in the district to be held on March 5. The other two chairmen are William J. Stratton, Lake county, and Ed. Jeffers, Kane county, both small adherents.

The three who signed the call are the necessary majority. And when the nominating convention is held—probably on April 23—Cook county will cast a vote of 1,255 out of a total of 1,462. The two small chairmen will have a combined strength of only 21.

Leland's Views Differ. Mr. Leland, the former deacon through whose judicial defeat his minister won a technical victory, looked at the decision from an exactly opposite point of view. But he, too, said with slightly different emphasis.

"I told you so."

"Even his worst enemy has to admit he is an intellectual giant," he said. "Care in on the stand? No, he's too smart for that."

Mr. Leland repeated that any reconciliation with his wife would be "impossible."

Beaten by Master Mind, Husband Says.

BY GENEVIEVE FORBES.

Dr. Carl D. Case and Albert R. Leland, opposing figures in the Leland Case divorce trial, which is now on a plateau of judicial rest pending Attorney Milford Olds' appeal from Judge Charles M. Foell's decision denying Leland his divorce, had identical reactions yesterday.

Both said, "I told you so."

The pastor of the First Baptist church of Oak Park, busy last night with a thanksgiving prayer service and with the adjustment of affairs to permit him and Mrs. Case to leave soon for their postponed trip to California, repeated:

"I could have told you so at any moment throughout the trial. I never doubted the outcome. It was like a detective story, with thrilling whirls but an inevitable denouement. Essential truth made T. Jay's decision certain."

Leland's Views Differ. Mr. Leland, the former deacon through whose judicial defeat his minister won a technical victory, looked at the decision from an exactly opposite point of view. But he, too, said with slightly different emphasis.

"I told you so."

"Even his worst enemy has to admit he is an intellectual giant," he said. "Care in on the stand? No, he's too smart for that."

Mr. Leland repeated that any reconciliation with his wife would be "impossible."

At the regular Wednesday night prayer meeting held in the parlors of Dr. Case's church the Rev. John Earl preached on the text, "Have faith in God," but no reference was made to the Leland divorce hearing. Dr. Case, accompanied by his wife and daughter

Police Get Back $100,000 Loot Stolen from Woman

New York, Feb. 20.—Police tonight restored to Mrs. Olive C. Walts, divorced wife of Archibald S. Walts, Cincinnati financier, $100,000 in stocks which with $7,000 in jewelry had been stolen from her apartment in a local hotel Feb. 8.

JUDGE ORDERS HALL KEPT OPEN FOR REVIVALIST

Paris, Ill., Feb. 20.—(Special.)—Judge Partlow of the Edgar county Circuit court tonight issued an injunction to prevent the closing of a hall in Charleston, Ill., in which Holiness church meetings have been held. A revivalist of the Holiness church was holding a revival in that city. He denounced the leaders of the Catholic church and attacked the priests.

The owner of the hall canceled the lease and locked the doors. A delegation of twenty or more represented by an attorney entered the Circuit court room today to urge Judge Partlow to grant the injunction.

The Ku Klux Klan of Charleston is backing the Holiness church people and trouble is feared.

VALUE OF SOUP

Soup is eaten at the beginning of a meal because its flavor stimulates the appetite.

Which in turn causes the all-important digestive juices to flow freely.

The richer the soup is in flavor, the more it stimulates the appetite.

And there you have the whole philosophy of soup making as practiced at CHILDS.

Real vegetable soup, base of all animal matter, and richly flavored with vegetable extracts.

KERMANS

Frocks that are "different" — of fabrics that are new

Novelty fabrics express the Vogue for Spring, and these charming frocks introduce two of fascinating distinction.

In the Boy Dress at the right, tan Pom Pom—a new material—is used to fashion a "jaunty" coat in harmony with the skirt of brown satin. While the applying of Petit Point to the panier, pockets and band of the basque line frock, shown at the left, is both new and unusual.

And these are only two of hundreds of "different" modes—many priced as low as $46—which may be seen at Kermans.

Kermans North and South Side Stores are open Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday evenings.

DAWES PLAN FOR RUHR IS OPPOSED BY FRENCH ARMY

Demands France Control Railway System.

PARIS, Feb. 20.—(By the Associated Press.)—The French high command opposes the abandonment of the Ruhr railways to Germany, as is provided for in the plan of the Dawes expert committee. The French government has been advised that military occupation could not continue with security unless the Franco-Belgian military control of communications is maintained.

French and Belgian military forces occupied the Ruhr without opposition from the German railway men, who transported troops, munitions, and supplies freely. They facilitated the occupation of the Ruhr as efficiently as they could have done had they been moving their own troops, but French military opinion is that they would not do so again and that to turn back the railways into German hands would make it impossible to easily resume a military grip.

May Make Counter Offer.
The government therefore is examining the conclusions of the experts from two points of view, the first economic and the second that of military security. It is understood the French government sees no objection, under given economic conditions, to the withdrawal of their civilian administration of the customs and coal tax, supervision of the mines, and every other form of supervision, but not of the Franco-Belgian railway control.

M. Parmentier and his associates on the committee of experts have been given an entirely free hand as regards economic and financial matters, but in the French military view he has not given sufficient attention to the military problems temporarily inseparable from any settlement, and counter proposals to the surrender of railway control in the Ruhr have been brought forward for consideration.

Consider International Control.
One of these proposals is that the French and Belgians shall remain in active cooperation with the German railway forces so that they would be in position to resume entire control should the necessity arise, and all receipts to be turned over to the German treasury so that the Germans would remain in complete business control. Another suggestion which might be acceptable to the French and Belgian governments is that of an international control of the Ruhr railways, in which the United States would have an equal share with the allied and German governments.

PAPER IN TOKIO SAYS U. S., BRITAIN AID JAP ALARMIST

TOKIO, Feb. 21.—(By the Associated Press.)—The Osaka Asahi compiles the proposed American Japanese exclusion act and the British Singapore naval base scheme as haven-est excuses for Japanese militarists to press for the extension of Japanese armaments to which the vast bulk of the Japanese nation is opposed.

"Some Americans and British capture the Japanese as being militaristic and as threatening the peace of the orient, but they themselves are propounding Japanese militarism by proposals contrary to the recent peace conference," the paper says.

CHINA'S WOE

(Chicago Tribune Foreign News Service.)

PEKING, Feb. 20.—(By the Associated Press.)—The Chinese government has just received from Nankai, dated Jan. 28, a report that Tibetan troops under Nankai Lama twice attacked the city, which is no longer garrisoned, the officials having fled. Chinese defended the city, but have asked annexation to Tibet on assurances of Nankai Lama that he will protect all, including foreigners. A number of American missionaries are in Nankai.

A priest named Munsham reports that a revolution is imminent in the Nankai territory, with Tangtse brigands joining the Tibetan forces.

The warfare in eastern Szechwan has taken a serious turn; for, while the northern forces have captured the capital, Chengtu, the Yunnanese troops have gotten astride their communications, cutting off the Peking army, which is isolated in Chengtu. Also, the important shipping port of Chungking is about to fall to the Yunnanese.

This disaster, coupled with the Tibetan inroads, makes the Chinese outlook gloomy.

JAPAN INVOKES CHRISTIAN AID TO "PEP UP" PEOPLE

TOKIO, Feb. 20.—(By the Associated Press.)—The influence of Christianity upon the national life of Japan is recognized as on a par with that of Shintoism and Buddhism in the program of an unprecedented series of religious conferences which began today. The conferences were called by Premier Kiyomasa in an effort to raise popular morale from the depression into which the earthquake last September plunged it.

POINCARE QUILTS IF FRENCH BEAT BALLOT MEASURE

BY HENRY WALES.

(Chicago Tribune Foreign News Service.)

PARIS, Feb. 20.—Premier Poincare will test his strength in the senate tomorrow. If the electoral bill, passed by the chamber of deputies, is rejected by the senate, he declared today he will resign. He is expected to win by a reduced majority of about 20.

In the chamber, during the debate on article 34, providing for the surrender of the state monopoly on match manufacturing and the turning over of the industry to private hands, M. Delastoyrie asked a vote of confidence.

M. Poincare, a Socialist, rose and stated that M. Poincare had promised him and his party that he would leave the chamber's hands free to do as it pleased with the match monopoly.

The Socialist made a dash for the speaker's tribune and the minister rushed down to meet him, but casualties were avoided when guards pounced on the deputy and dragged him out into the hall. The widest insult prevailed. The galleries were cleared and the halls were policed for fifteen minutes, to be sure that quiet was restored before parliament resumed its session.

The government defeated the Socialist amendment by a vote of 255 to 215.

RUSSO-CHINESE TREATY REPORT ALARMS JAPAN

(Chicago Tribune Foreign News Service.)

TOKIO, Feb. 20.—The reported agreement between China and Russia, in which China recognizes the soviet and Russia gives up Mongolia and returns all concessions, is being closely watched in Tokio.

Japan is coming openly into the field as China's champion against the western world. Foreign Minister Matsui said today that the day of imperialistic ambitions in China is ended. He denounced the pre-war policies of armed struggle.

The Sino-Russian agreement, as called here, returns the Chinese Eastern railway zone to the sovereignty of China and reserves Russian ownership of the railway, providing that the management consists of soviet nominated Russians.

The establishment of a soviet sphere of influence in North Manchuria, certainly will worry Japan, which may intervene to prevent its consummation.

The cabinet council has decided to continue to ignore the existence of the soviet government.

U. S. CONDITIONS TWO SHIPS FOR CHINA RIVER WAR

BY JOHN POWELL.

(Chicago Tribune Foreign News Service.)

SHANGHAI, Feb. 20.—America's first move to put the naval fleet on the Yangtze river in condition for better protection of American lives and property against bandits and military deserters was made this week when a contract was let here for reconditioning two ships, the Pigeon and Penguin, of the mine sweeper class, for service on the Yangtze.

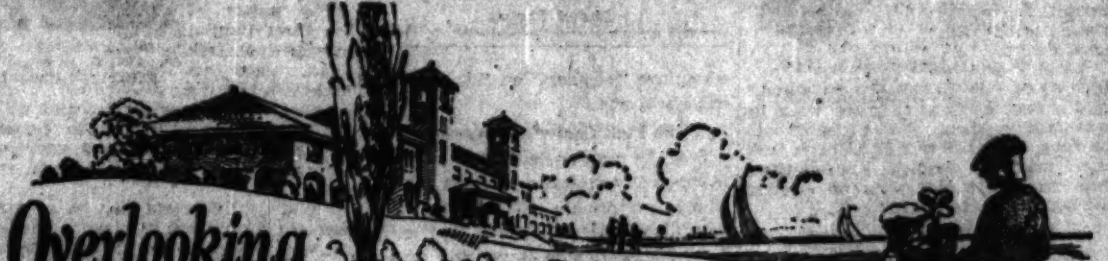

The ships were sent here from Honolulu recently under emergency orders, owing to the obsolete condition of the present American naval ships on the Yangtze. America now has six patrol boats on the river, of which all are obsolete but one, the Isabel, which is used as the admiral's flagship.

JURY COMPLETED TO DECIDE FATE OF KITTY MALM

State to Ask Death for Lehmann Murder.

After five days spent in the examination of evidence, a jury was chosen yesterday to try Kitty Malm accused of the slaying of Edward Lehmann during an attempted robbery.

Each of the jurors went on record during his examination, as having "no conscientious scruples against the infliction of the death penalty, even though the defendant be a woman." The state put this question to each juror because it expects to ask the death penalty for Mrs. Malm.

Mrs. Malm Unmoved.
Throughout the examination of the case who will decide her fate, Mrs. Malm displayed a cold calm. Court men say they saw her smile while prospective jurors were being asked if they had qualms about sending a woman to the gallows.

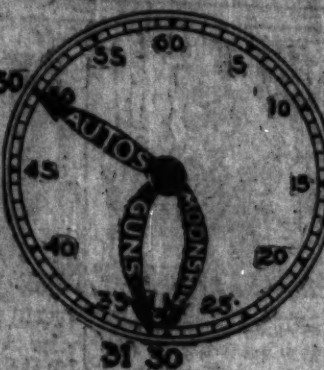

"Mrs. Malm is the hardest woman I ever saw in a court room," Prosecutor Harry Pritsker said. "The evidence will show that she fired the shots that killed Lehmann. We will ask that she receive the heaviest penalty the state can inflict."

To Deny Her Guilt.
Attorney Jay J. McCarthy, counsel for the defendant, said he expected to show that Mrs. Malm had been caught in a set of circumstances and that she had no connection with the actual murder.

The opening statement in the trial, which will be held in the courtroom of Judge Walter P. Steffen, will be made this morning by Assistant State's Attorney Robert E. McMullen.

HANDS OF DEATH

The clock indicates the number of deaths caused by automobiles, guns, and moonshine in Cook county since Jan. 1, 1924.

SPEED'S DEATH RATE IN CITY IS DECREASING

Encouragement in the fight against automobile fatalities was given yesterday in two sets of figures, one covering the state, the other the city. Both showed reductions in the city's death rate.

As officials were remarking the lessening number of deaths, the day passed without an automobile death. The auto hand on the Tribune's clock of death, indicating the number of deaths in Cook county since Jan. 1, stood still at fifty.

Figures of Mayor Dever's safety commission, covering Chicago, show that the motor deaths so far this year are 40 per cent below the number in the same period last year. This year the city's figure is thirty-eight, as compared with sixty-three deaths in 1923. The statistics for Illinois, issued by the state department of health, show a slight decrease for Chicago in 1923 from the 1922 total, but an extremely large increase, of 143 per cent, for the remainder of the state.

Say Election Fraud Quiz Caused Czarniecki Bombing

Police investigating the bombing of Election Commissioner Anthony Czarniecki's home in Norwood Park Tuesday night believed the bomb was thrown as the result of the activities of the election commissioners in probing the alleged frauds committed in the Twentieth and Twenty-fourth wards during the last judicial election.

The bomb smashed all windows on the ground floor of the commissioner's home, tore off part of the front porch and slightly injured Mrs. Czarniecki, who was at home with her children when the explosion occurred.

BLIZZARD BURIES EAST IN SLUSH; ZERO HITS WEST

New York, Feb. 20.—(Special.)—Almost the whole of the eastern section of the United States is struggling along in slush, ranging from two to nine inches deep, as the result of a heavy blizzard. The weather man warns of a still greater menace—a drop in temperature.

Heavy damage is reported by many cities. Telegraph and telephone lines are badly crippled. Transportation systems are experiencing many delays and shipping up and down the Atlantic coast has been impeded by strong gales.

Blizzard Buries Buffalo.
A blizzard, said to be the worst in nine years, is raging in northern New York and southeastern Canada. Buffalo was buried. Western trains were hours late. Several small communities in western New York and northern Pennsylvania were isolated.

According to the weather bureau, 4.5 inches of snow fell in New York City before it turned to sleet and then rain.

GILDED WOODEN HEART MAY HOLD VOLTAIRE HEART

PARIS, Feb. 20.—[By the Associated Press.]—In the presence of the minister of fine arts a bronze plate bearing the inscription "the Heart of Voltaire" found on a pedestal designed for a plaster statue of the great French thinker, in the National Library, was removed today and disclosed a hollowed space containing a small wooden box.

This being opened a large gilded wooden heart was found inscribed, "Heart of Voltaire—Died Paris—Thirty May, 1778."

The minister refrained, however, from opening the wooden heart. The bronze plate bore an inscription indicating that the pedestal in which the heart was found was donated to the National Library by the heirs of the Marquis de Vilette, in 1864.

The Man Who Crowds

You see him everywhere, the man who crowds, getting into elevators, boarding street cars, at box offices, in business organizations. A little cheap success is his and he is small enough to glory in his accomplishment. His intellect is incapable of grasping the truth that progress is by service only.

The women of culture who attain fame as hostesses are not they who overwhelm by the brilliance of their conversation, but they who cause each guest to feel that his own conversation and that of other guests is brilliant.

In business, good management is evidenced by conspicuous results achieved in inconspicuous ways, for business management worthy of the name is influence by service rather than by command of authority.

With reference to the relations between Henrici's and its patrons the chief concern of the management is to give the best possible service to those who honor the institution with their confidence and trade. All else is of subordinate importance.

And this guiding principle, adopted at the foundation of Henrici's, more than half a century ago, has simplified many a situation which otherwise might have developed into a problem of gravest concern.

RALLY TONIGHT TO URGE CAUSE OF CAPTIVE VETS

Review Fighters' Cases, Is Chicago Cry.

These glimmers on the horizon for America's "lost legion."—The spontaneous demand for a review of its case is growing. Reason is at hand for those who fought and were forgotten.

CLAUDE FOUBARE, (TRIBUNE Photo.)

Representatives of from fifty to one hundred organizations of men and women from all walks of life will meet tonight in the city council chamber to crystallize the movement for the review of the cases of the soldiers who fought for this country but are still in the federal prison at Leavenworth. While the soldiers and the spies who fought against the flag have long since been sent on their way rejoicing, these fighters have been in prison, unheeded. Thousands will be represented at the meeting. It will be opened at 8 o'clock by Claude Foubare, past commander of the Harold Taylor post of the American Legion. Mr. Foubare is chairman of the Chicago organization formed to aid the "lost legion."

Plan for Big Rally.

This organization so far has called itself the committee to review cases of military prisoners. Organization and executive committees will be appointed today. On the latter all the associations which have joined for the common purpose will be represented. Plans for a mass meeting to be held within the next ten days also are under way and the date and place may be announced at the meeting in the council chamber.

Chairman Foubare spent yesterday conferring with the heads of organizations desiring to join the movement. "I have talked with many," he said. "They wish to add their support. The women's clubs and the fraternal and labor organizations are with us. We extend an invitation to every association which wishes to join us to attend the meeting tonight. We wish the help of all. It has been a spontaneous uprising and appears to be the most patriotic activity since the war ended."

These Back Demands.

Some of the organizations that already have placed themselves solidly behind the demand for a review of the "lost legion" cases are the Gold Star Mothers, Gold Star Fathers, American Legion, American Legion auxiliary, American Legion Cook County association, World's War Veterans, Veterans of Foreign Wars, G. A. R., Buck Privateer association, Combat Medal men, Disabled Vets, Service Star Legion, Illinois Soldiers, Sailors, and Marines' Relief society, the Red Cross, 40 and 41 city council ex-servicemen, and the Cincero Women's club and others.

The men of the "lost legion" are those who fought for the flag but who got into trouble while in the army—trouble for which they were court-martialed and sent to prison. Many of these fighters, it is now admitted, were given long terms for offenses which in peace times would not have drawn more than light fines.

Ex-Army Judge Leads Head.

This fact has been pointed out by Attorney Joseph Norville of Memphis, Tenn. Mr. Norville was judge advocate in France during the war and helped send many of the men to prison. He now heads an organization in his state for the release of the prisoners and says it is high time their cases were reviewed.

JILTED BY BRIDE, SHOTS HIMSELF WHILE IN TAXI

Michael Pinovich, a bridegroom of three months, shot himself above the heart last night after he had found his bride in the company of another man. "I don't love you any more and I'm going with this fellow," she told him. Pinovich, who is a laborer, left his home at 2333 North Robey street, went to the loop and hailed a taxi. He directed the chauffeur to drive through Lincoln park. After riding for a short while he stopped the cab and told the driver to take him to the nearest police station. Assisted by the driver, Pinovich walked into the West North avenue station and collapsed in the arms of Lieut. William Huser. Examination revealed the wound.

"I'll Take a Chance!"

The thought that goes with the cup of coffee at the evening meal is a disturbing one. "It may keep me awake tonight!"

The something [caffeine] in coffee that keeps so many folks awake nights, is entirely absent in Postum—the delicious, pure cereal beverage. The difference means a full night's rest and a bright tomorrow.

Postum for Health

"There's a Reason"

Postum comes in two forms: Instant Postum (in tin) prepared instantly in the cup by the addition of boiling water. Postum Cereal (in package) for those who prefer the flavor brought out by boiling fully 20 minutes. The cost of either form is about one-half cent a cup.

Distinctive Summer Fabrics—Imported Printed Voiles, 95c

THIS material is a beautiful sheer quality and comes in many interesting and rather unusual designs. There are patterns and colors enough to allow for a wide choice in the matter of selection.

36-Inch Colored Dress Linen, 60c Yard

This is indeed a remarkable value in view of the continued strong demand for linen this season. It is a soft finished mercerized material which has been shrunk, and is most desirable for making summer and sports dresses for women and children; the low price suggests supplying future needs. The colors are green, blue, lavender, rose, orange, yellow and gold brown.

SCHOOLS ARE FOR ALL THE PEOPLE, McANDREW SAYS

Holds Up Education as a Patriotic Service.

The public schools are not for the children; they are for the people. The children are the future of the nation. The schools are the only place where the children can be taught to love their country and to respect the rights of others. The schools are the only place where the children can be taught to work hard and to be honest. The schools are the only place where the children can be taught to be patriotic and to be loyal to their country. The schools are the only place where the children can be taught to be good and to be kind. The schools are the only place where the children can be taught to be brave and to be true. The schools are the only place where the children can be taught to be the best of what God has made them.

By and For All the People.

But this is all wrong. The purpose of the public schools is to make better citizens. The schools are supported by all the people for all the people. The schools are the only place where the children can be taught to be good and to be kind. The schools are the only place where the children can be taught to be brave and to be true. The schools are the only place where the children can be taught to be the best of what God has made them.

Instead of regarding education as a privilege, it should be regarded as a duty. The superintendent said, and the idea of service should be instilled into the pupils.

Miss Patricia Duty.

"Children should go to school for the same reason that men join the army for the sake of patriotism," he said. "Children study every day. What can I get out of education? But what they should think is: What can I give in return for the education given to me?"

In connection with his plan for improving Chicago school children with the idea of service, he asked for written suggestions from members of the Association of Commerce as to how this could best be done.

FANATIC RISING SPREADS AMONG FILIPINO TRIBES

[Chicago Tribune Foreign News Service.]

MANILA, Feb. 20.—The continued seriousness of the Colorms (religious fanaticism) situation has caused the insular authorities to consider declaring these activities seditious and treasonable, punishable by death.

The report of a special investigation by the department of interior, published yesterday, states that the Colorms have established groups in virtually every province. They planned to engineer an uprising near Manila on Feb. 2, but the closeness of United States regular troops at Fort McKinley deterred them.

Telegrams just received from Mindanao province state that the Colorms are spreading all over the entire island, and that the Colorms are now in the first report of pagan tribes joining them.

Father Francis X. O'Hara denies a statement in the department of the interior report that the Colorms are Catholics. He stated that the movement would be refused them when dying.

Hitherto it has been considered that the Colorms are not political, but there are indications that the trouble may assume a political turn.

Happiness

THERE IS a remarkable human document in The American Magazine which reaches the newsstands today.

Irving Bacheller, famous novelist, tells how he searched everywhere for a man or woman who was really happy.

He gives names.

MARK TWAIN, for example. Mr. Bacheller found the great humorist brooding hopelessly. For weeks he had been writing page after page, only to toss them in the fire. "My stuff burns well," he said with a bitter laugh.

He had a devoted family, a beautiful home, world-wide fame—everything—
Everything but happiness!

Andrew Carnegie. Mr. Bacheller spent glorious days with Carnegie in his castle in Scotland. In the evenings there were music, dancing, banquets.

But the host and owner of it all sat like a man under a haunting shadow.

"I would trade most of my treasure," he said, "for the promise of twenty years more of life and health."

Does it sound discouraging? It is not. The end of this intimate, first person story has a thrill you will not soon forget.

Mr. Bacheller found a happy person. Where? Who? Man or woman? Rich or poor? You must read the story and find out for yourself.

It is immensely worth reading. It is one of those articles which are The American Magazine. Not something that someone has written, but something that someone has lived—

Not literature merely, but Life.

ROUMANIA FINDS FAULT WITH BILL ON IMMIGRATION

Objection Stirs Ire of House Committee Head.

Washington, D. C., Feb. 20.—Secretary Hughes today outlined to congress further objections of the state department to details of pending immigration legislation. He also forwarded to the house immigration committee a protest from the Roumanian legation which Representative Albert Johnson (Rep., Wash.), chairman, described as "impudent."

Secretary Hughes urged that proposed legislation should avoid any "discrimination of which just complaint can be made." He called attention to the fact that the Johnson bill to substitute 1500 quota figures as the basis for future quota restrictions had already "evoked representations from Italy and Roumania," but did not amplify views he previously had expressed regarding the Roumanian features of the measure.

Objects to Discrimination.
"I desire," Mr. Hughes' letter said, "to make no suggestions as to the basis of the quota further than to state that it is hoped that a basis will be found that will not involve any discrimination of which just complaint can be made."

Secretary Hughes said the Johnson bill, as now framed, while designed to carry out recommendations of President Harding for avoiding disappointments to immigrants, would not in fact meet the Harding suggestions. Under certain conditions American consuls could not deny immigration certificates, he contended, although they had knowledge that the immigrants would have to be excluded upon arrival in America.

Part Consulate Play.
"It is for congress to decide," Mr. Hughes added, "what part, if any, consuls are to participate in the enforcement of the immigration law."

One of Secretary Hughes' suggestions was that quota restrictions should not apply to American republics.

Chairman Johnson read the Roumanian protest on the floor of the house. It said adoption of the 1500 quota as a restrictive basis would "deeply wound the pride of the Roumanian people" and "strongly affect their material interests."

"These impudent protests received from foreign governments to recuperate at the expense of the American people will have the result soon," he said, "I hope, of limiting enactment of really restrictive immigration legislation."

CHARLES APPEL
STILL MISSING; WIFE QUIZZED

Mrs. Augusta Appel, wife of Charles Appel, former manager of North Side Turner hall, was questioned at the state's attorney's office yesterday when her husband, accused of embezzlement and confidence game, failed to surrender. She had informed First Assistant State's Attorney George H. Gorman last Saturday that Appel was due to surrender himself here yesterday. She told questioners she believed he still is somewhere in California.

THE Metropolitan Museum of Art derives from membership dues and admission fees, less than 10% of the vast sum required to maintain so valuable an institution. It gives the most, rather than the least, it can.

It costs a fortune to make a magazine artistically and the most beautiful popular periodical in the country. Huge financial resources give you the greatest possible extra value. Read "De We Live Again" the interview with Thomas A. Edison in the March issue, for instance.

WASHINGTON DAY PROGRAMS PLAN OF ALL SCHOOLS

Military Exercises to Be Featured.

Special exercises will be held today in all the public schools in celebration of the birthday anniversary of George Washington, and Friday will be a holiday throughout the school system. At various playgrounds the children will model statues of Washington in the snow as a feature of patriotic programs.

At Englewood, Lake View, and other high schools where large R. O. T. C. units exist, the celebration will have a military character, the program being centered around the unit. At the Gladstone school veterans of the civil, Spanish-American, and world wars will speak at the exercises held under the auspices of the American Legion and other organizations of war veterans.

Those Who Will Speak.
Among the speakers are Judge Marcus Kavanagh, a colonel in the Spanish-American war; Maj. William R. Woods, assistant chief of staff of the 8th division; Col. A. C. Earnshaw and Col. H. B. Hackett. The speakers will be introduced by W. H. Wright, principal of the school, and the R. O. T. C. buglers will sound the call.

For tomorrow, the statesman's birthday, many celebrations have been planned, including a pilgrimage to the Washington monument, 51st street and Grand boulevard, where a group of citizens, sponsored by the Illinois society, Sons and Daughters of the American Revolution, will place a wreath and hold a short program.

Later, in the evening, a joint celebration of the Oak Park chapter, Sons of the American Revolution, and the George Rogers Clark chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, will be held at the Oak Park armory hotel, where Federal Judge Adam C. Cline and S. J. Duncan-Clark will speak.

Padden on Program.

At the Logan Square Masonic temple, where the Physicians' Fellowship club is holding a celebration, Frank M. Padden, first assistant corporation counsel, will be the principal speaker, and the Logan Square branch of the Kiwanis club will be guests.

Other celebrations include the annual Washington's birthday banquet at the Second Presbyterian church, where Dr. Edgar De Witt Jones of Detroit will speak. Exercises will be held in many other churches.

The Chicago postoffice will be closed tomorrow.

tomorrow. No deliveries will be made. For the accommodation of the public the following agencies will be given at the main postoffice: all day service, special delivery and lock box; retail stamp window open until midnight. General delivery will be open from 8 to 10 a. m. One collection from all street mail boxes will be made.

The Great Emancipator - of bookkeepers

CHAINED to high stools by outworn custom, bookkeepers, slaved, exhausted by ledgers heavy as dictionaries; slowed up by beams of giant pages that must be flopped and reflopped endlessly.

Then came the machine-posted L. B. Card ledger that emancipated bookkeepers and business from bound books or loose-leaf ledgers.

Crisp, handy L. B. Ledger cards replaced awkward, thin pages with crumpling, ruffled edges. Reaching directly for the ledger card desired saved hours of costly time each day.

Compact L. B. Ledger trays or desks, that saved from 10% to 50% of space, displaced ponderous bound or loose-leaf books, that stole costly square feet.

Banks were first to be emancipated from old-fashioned bound books and loose-leaf ledgers. In San Francisco, 12 prominent commercial banks adopted L. B. Card ledgers within eight months. In New York State 74% of the mutual savings banks record over two billions of dollars in deposits on L. B. Ledger cards.

General business seized upon it, quick to realize the enormous savings in time and space. Thousands of offices right here in Chicago have adopted it.

Send for book No. 711, which contains full information on the L. B. Card ledger. Or better still come to our convenient store for a personal demonstration.

Features of "Father" adorn households, and in the homes of the nation's youth are pictures of the "Father Country"—this country.
On today, the anniversary of George Washington, the editors of the newspaper, a year ago gave $1,000 for school
children's essays on the life of G.
Washington, were wholehearted support of the spirit behind the subscription and become the property of the Art Institute of Chicago.

Would Be Its Prized Possession
"May I say that this wonderful hall, one of the most important of Washington (that has been made, if secured, will be in to come the proudest possession of our museum. Quite aside from quality as a work of art, it stands as contemporary document, showing us today and to our descendants actual destination of the great nation
It will, therefore, be a very service to the people of Chicago to secure it, and any service to history can render toward that with, I need not add, be very appreciated by the trustees of the Institution."
The writer went to see the portrait and to talk about it with Mr. Harsh

Finest of the Group
"The portrait is really the finest set of four of this particular of the Washington by Stuart."
Marshall stated. One of the other could be sold for $140,000."
The size of the picture is 93 in high and 43 inches wide. Its his
